JYOTI - FAIR WORKS

Jyoti - Fair Works is a German-Indian social enterprise empowering women through the production of fair fashion.

Committed to assisting socially disadvantaged women in India by enabling them to lead a self-determined life, we offer them a training in sewing, a fair wage and a permanent and secure position in our company.

Together we produce clothes and accessories out of recycled, as well as ecologically and fairly produced materials.

The earnings enable the funding of literacy and education programs, as well as the provision of health insurance. Through our range of products we want to show that lovely clothing and accessories can be both fair and affordable. This satisfies both consumers and producers - that's how fair works!

OUR PRODUCT LINES

ORGANIC

We exclusively use fairly produced organic cotton cloths in high-quality made in India.

UPCYCLING

We create new products out of remaining fabric remnants by blending originally discarded materials such as rice bags. By acting consciously, we save resources.

TRADITIONAL

We support local retailers by purchasing traditional high-quality sari-cloths.

All products are online available.
